TERMS AND CONDITIONS
VERSION 3
MARCH 2023

IMPORTANT NOTICES
PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

EQUITI GROUP LIMITED JORDAN PROVIDES AN EXECUTION-ONLY SERVICE UNDER THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

FX AND CFDS ARE COMPLEX INSTRUMENTS. THEY COME WITH A HIGH RISK OF LOSING MONEY RAPIDLY DUE TO LEVERAGE. YOU SHOULD CONSIDER WHETHER YOU UNDERSTAND HOW FX AND CFDS WORK, AND WHETHER YOU CAN AFFORD TO INCUR LOSSES AND HAVE THE APPROPRIATE RISK APPETITE. A USEFUL EXPLANATION OF THE RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH OUR TRANSACTIONS IS SET OUT IN THE RISK WARNING DISCLOSURE AVAILABLE ON OUR WEBSITE. YOU SHOULD ENSURE YOU FULLY UNDERSTAND SUCH RISKS BEFORE OPENING OR CLOSING A POSITION WITH US.

IMPORTANT SUMMARY

These terms and conditions (the Terms) set out the terms of the contract between you and us for the provision of our Services. In particular, the Terms govern each Position you open or close out with us.

A current and definitive copy of these Terms (as amended, restated or supplemented from time to time) will be available to you on our Website.

Trading in our Products is not appropriate for everyone. We consider that our Products should only be traded by a person who: (i) has the ability to bear a 100% loss of all funds invested, and (ii) has a high-risk tolerance.

Risks

The value of the underlying financial instruments, to which you gain an exposure via a CFD or another Product, may fluctuate. You should make sure you understand the risks involved in trading our Products and that you take appropriate independent advice where necessary.

Our Products are leveraged and therefore carry a higher degree of risk than investing directly in the underlying financial instrument (such as regular share trading). Our Products may not be suitable for every client. A further detailed explanation of the risks associated with trading our Products is set out in our Risk Warning Disclosure and the Guidance Newsletter.

You have no interest in the underlying financial instrument

The trading of our Products does not give you a right to the underlying financial instrument, because a CFD represents a notional value. For example, where the Product is a share CFD you do not have an interest in the underlying share, nor does the CFD grant you a right of ownership in the underlying share.

The trading you conduct with us is not conducted on an exchange or a Market. We act as counterparty to a Position, and as such your Positions are notional and may not be transferred.

You are responsible for your decisions

We provide an execution-only service. We do not, and we will not, provide advice or management in relation to a Position, your portfolio or your trading strategy. You must rely on your own judgement or discretion (or that of an independent third party advisor or consultant) in deciding whether or not to open or close out a Position.

You must act only for yourself (as principal) and not on behalf of others

We will deal with you on the basis that you act as principal and not as agent for an undisclosed person. This means that we will treat you as our client and the money in your account as your money, for all purposes, and you will be directly and personally responsible for performing your obligations under each Position you open or close out.

If you act in connection with or on behalf of someone else, whether or not you identify that person to us, we will not accept that person as an indirect customer of ours and we will not accept or owe an obligation to them. Furthermore, if another person operates your account on your behalf we may terminate these Terms or close any open Positions, without prior notice.

Complaints

We take complaints very seriously and have in place internal procedures to ensure that a complaint is dealt with promptly and fairly. If you would like to make a complaint, please contact us in writing via the communication methods set out below to raise your complaint. We will aim to investigate and resolve your complaint to the best of our ability within forty days. Details of our complaint procedure can be found on our Website.

Market abuse

By trading with us you are likely subject to various market abuse regimes. Accordingly, you must not carry out trading activity that could be considered Market Abuse.

If you carry out an activity which is reasonably considered as obtaining as improper trading we reserve the right to void or cancel part or all of your Positions, close all of your trading accounts, terminate these Terms, seize your improperly earned profits, or take such other action that we consider appropriate.

THIS SECTION IS A SUMMARY OF SOME KEY TERMS THAT GOVERN OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU. THIS SECTION IS NOT EXHAUSTIVE AND MUST NOT BE RELIED ON IN DECIDING TO ENTER INTO THESE TERMS OR OPEN OR CLOSE OUT A POSITION WITH US. YOU MUST READ THESE TERMS IN ITS ENTIRETY BEFORE ACCEPTANCE.

1.4.3 You will remain liable for an act or omission by an Authorised Third Party. We will rely on Orders or other instructions given to us by the Authorised Third Party, and we will accept and act on such Orders or other instructions in good faith and without further enquiry or further monitoring of the Authorised Third Party's compliance with instructions relating to the application of trading or investment strategies.

You agree that you will not disclose your Security Information to another person.

SECTION 2

OUR ACTIVITIES AND SERVICES

2.1 Our business model

2.1.1 Deal on execution-only, non-advisory and non-management basis. We deal on an execution-only basis; we do not advise on the merits of particular Positions, the timing or amount of a deposit or withdrawal of funds, or their tax consequences, and we do not provide any management services.

2.1.2 Straight through processing broker. We are a straight through processing broker and quote the prices provided to us by certain Liquidity Providers from whom we source prices electronically through our Electronic Trading Services. Subject to sub-clause 2.1.3 below, such quotes represent prices at which we are prepared to deal with our clients.

2.1.3 A quote is not an offer to open or close a Position. A quote provided by us is indicative only and is not an offer to open or close a Position at the quoted price. A Position is opened at the quoted price only once an Order is accepted by us.

2.1.4 No reliance. We will not, and are prohibited from, providing you with:

- (a) advice on the merits of a Position;
- (b) recommendations in relation to an open Position; or
- (c) investment, legal, regulatory, accounting, tax or other forms of advice in respect of a Position.

You should not rely on an opinion, research or analysis expressed or published by us or our Affiliates as being a recommendation or advice in relation to a Position.

2.1.5 Information not representation on suitability.

In the course of our Services to you, we may, at our absolute discretion, provide you with:

- (a) information in respect of a Position (specifically in respect of related procedures and risks and method of minimising such risks); and
- (b) market views, trading ideas or other information, including information about our Products and Services or make other statements to you concerning investments and investment strategy.

In providing you with such information we make no representation as to the merits, risks or suitability of an Order, Position, investment strategy or market condition. Information provided by us is not a recommendation, nor will it represent a comprehensive or verified assessment of the Position or the relevant market. You should not treat any information or statement, including information about our Products and Services, as investment advice on the suitability of any investment for you.

Nevertheless, if one of our employees makes a statement (whether in response to your request for information or otherwise) regarding a Position, Product or the market, you acknowledge and agree that you will not be entitled to rely on such statement as investment advice or a recommendation.

2.1.6 Independent appraisal. When you place an Order or open or close a Position, you represent that you have made your own independent appraisal into the risks of the Position, investment or investment strategy. You represent that you have sufficient knowledge, market sophistication, experience, or that you have sought independent professional advice, to make your own evaluation of the merits and risks associated in trading with us.

2.1.7 No fiduciary duty. Unless specifically agreed between us in writing, providing a Service to you will not give rise to any fiduciary or equitable duties on our part, on part of our Affiliates or our employees. You agree that nothing contained in these Terms will create a fiduciary, trustee, agency, joint venture or partnership relationship between you and us, you and our Affiliates or you and our employees.

2.2 Investment Services and Activities

We provide the following investment services and activities:

2.4 Communications on our Services and Products

We may contact you to discuss our Services and Products, and you agree that we may call you without an express invitation to do so. We may also provide you with general trading recommendations, market commentary and other information on our Platform, Website, through electronic communications or otherwise and you agree that we may contact you in such a way without an express invitation to do so. The fact that we make such a call or otherwise contact you does not imply that we consider our Services or Products suitable for you or that we are providing you with a personal recommendation or advice.

PLACING AN ORDER

3.1 Overview

3.1.1 You may open or close out a Position with us (whether as a “buy” or a “sell”), by placing an Order at the quoted price.

3.1.2 A quote is based on either:

- (a) the bid and offer price of the applicable instrument on the Underlying Market; or
- (b) the bid and offer price quoted on the Platform.

3.1.3 A quote we provide to you is valid only at the time it has been provided and is subject to change. Therefore, spreads, market spreads as well as the cost of opening or closing out a Position change significantly depending on the prevailing market conditions and our quoted price.

3.2 Placing an Order

3.2.1 You may place an Order electronically through the Platform, unless we notify you that instructions for an Order can be given in an alternative manner.

3.2.2 We will only act upon an Order once received by us and we will have no liability to you for any loss or damage that may arise from delayed receipt of an Order, or non-receipt of an Order.

3.3 Right not to accept an Order

We may, but have no obligation to, accept an Order. If we decline an Order, we will not be obligated to give you a reason. We shall, subject to Applicable Regulations, promptly notify you if we decline an Order, but will not be liable for any expense, loss or damage you incur by reason of an omission to notify you.

3.4 Amending an Order

Once given, an Order may only be withdrawn or amended with our consent.

3.5 Cancellation of an Order

A request to cancel an Order may only be accepted by us if we have not acted upon such Order.

3.6 Order handling

3.6.1 Order execution Policy:

- (a) We execute orders in accordance with our Order execution Policy, a copy of which is available on our Website. The Order execution Policy is part of these Terms. By accepting these Terms, you consent to the Order execution Policy.
- (b) We shall use our reasonable endeavours to execute an Order promptly, but in accepting your Order we do not warrant that it will be possible to execute such Order or that the Order will be executed according to your instructions. We shall carry out an Order only when the relevant Market or Underlying Market is open for dealing, and we shall deal with an Order received outside Market or Underlying Market hours as soon as practicable, when that relevant Market or Underlying Market is next open for business (in accordance with the rules of that Market or Underlying Market). On occasion, this may result in you obtaining a less favourable price once your Order has been executed. You acknowledge and agree that we will not be liable to you as a result of such less favourable price being obtained.

3.6.2 Aggregation of an Order: We reserve the right to aggregate your Order with Orders placed by other clients. Aggregation means that we may combine your Order with those of other clients for execution as a single Order. On occasion, aggregation may result in you obtaining a less favourable price once your Order has been executed. You acknowledge and agree that we will not be liable to you as a result of such less favourable price being obtained.

3.7 Authority

3.7.1 You authorise us to act on an Order given by you, orally or in writing, through authorised channels such as the Platform, live chat, or through specified phone, e-mail or instant messaging channels.

3.7.2 You agree that:

- (a) you shall hold us harmless from all losses, costs, fees, damages, expenses, claims, suits, demands and liabilities whatsoever that we may suffer or incur or that may be brought against us, in any way relating to or arising out of our acting upon any such instructions, Orders or information received from you;
- (b) you shall bear the risk of all Orders or instructions given on the Platform. You shall hold us harmless from all losses, costs, fees, damages, expenses, claims, suits, demands and liabilities whatsoever if it transpires that any such Order or instruction was unauthorised, or fraudulent; and
- (c) you shall indemnify us against any liabilities that we may incur or that may arise as the result of legal or other actions brought against us, arising out of our acting upon, delay in acting upon or refusal to act upon any such Order, instructions or information.

3.7.3 Without derogating from the above, we will not be obligated to act in accordance with an Order or instruction if we reasonably believe that:

- (a) the person who provided such an Order or instruction was acting in excess of their authority;
- (b) acting upon such an Order or instruction would infringe upon Applicable Regulations, our Policies or these Terms; or
- (c) in the event that we have accepted an Order that we later suspect falls within sections (a) or (b) of this clause, we may, in our absolute discretion, either close out such Positions at the then prevailing price quoted on the Platform or treat that Position as having been void from the outset.

3.7.4 Nothing in this clause 3.7 (Authority) will be construed as an obligation on our part to inquire about the authority of a person who purports to represent you.

3.8 Control of an Order

We have the right to, at our discretion, set a limit or a parameter to control your ability to place an Order or to give instructions. Such limit or parameter may be amended, increased, decreased, removed or added, and may include:

- (a) the Margin requirements;

- (b) maximum Order amount and maximum Order size;
- (c) our total exposure to you;
- (d) the price at which an Order may be submitted (to include (without limitation) controls over an Order which is at a price that differs from the market price at the time the Order is submitted); and
- (e) any other limit or parameter which we may be required to implement in accordance with Applicable Regulations, Policies and these Terms.

3.9 Position limits imposed by a Market, an Underlying Market or us

A limit on your Positions may be imposed by a Market or an Underlying Market and we may require you to limit the number of open Positions which you may have with us at any time and we may in our sole discretion close out one or more Positions in order to ensure that such Position limits are maintained.

3.10 Trading relationship

Our trading relationship with you is subject to the following:

- (a) the terms and conditions of a Market or Underlying Market, including an intermediate, executing or clearing broker;
- (b) Applicable Regulations
- (c) Policies; and
- (d) other terms agreed between us.

3.11 Market action

If a Market or an Underlying Market takes an action which affects a Position, or becomes insolvent or is suspended from operating, then we may take any action, including an action which may affect a Position or these Terms, which we, in our discretion, consider necessary to mitigate losses incurred. Such actions will be binding on you.

If a Market or an Underlying Market makes an enquiry in respect of you, an Authorised Third Party, or a Position, you agree to co-operate with us and to promptly supply the information requested, taking into account the JSC Rules.

3.12 Governmental, regulatory and law enforcement Action

If a governmental, inter-governmental or supranational body, agency, department or regulatory, self-regulatory or other authority or organisation anywhere in the world takes an action which affects our relationship with you or a Position, then we may take such action, which we in our discretion, consider necessary.

If an authority listed above makes an enquiry in respect of you or a Position, you agree to co-operate with us and promptly supply the information requested to us and the relevant authority, taking into account the JSC rules.

3.13 Confirmations

Subject to the particular terms of a Position, we shall send you a confirmation at the end of each trading day detailing the Positions that have been opened or closed out on that particular trading day. Such confirmation will be available on the Platform or on any other electronic medium determined by us. It is your responsibility to inform us if you do not receive a confirmation, or if a confirmation or if information relating to a particular Position is incorrect. A confirmation will, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on you, unless we receive an objection in writing within five Business Days of receipt, or we notify you of an error in the confirmation within the same period.

3.14 Market abuse and conduct

If we reasonably believe that you (including an Authorised Representative) have, or have attempted to, manipulate our quote, execution process or the Platform, or have attempted some form of Market Abuse, we may in our discretion, without notice to you, do one or more of the following (to the extent permitted by the JSC Rules):

- (a) claim any money you owe us under a Position;
- (b) treat all of your open Positions as void from their inception;
- (c) withhold or set-off against any funds which we suspect to have been derived from such activities;
- (d) close out your open Positions;
- (e) adjust the Equity in your Account;
- (f) suspend or terminate your Account;
- (g) terminate these Terms without the need for a court order; and
- (h) take such other action as we consider appropriate.

You agree that you will not engage in Market Abuse, or require or encourage another to do so, or otherwise contravene similar requirements under Applicable Regulations.

You warrant, represent and undertake that you are aware of, and understand the, Applicable Regulations relating to Market Abuse. You acknowledge and agree that we may monitor your Orders, and that we have a legal obligation to make certain reports to the relevant authorities, and to supply information to them about you and your Positions.

3.15 Anti-money laundering

3.15.1 To the extent that this section applies to you, you represent, warrant and undertake to us and, furthermore, each time you give us an Order or open or close out a Position with us, you will be deemed to represent, warrant and undertake to us that:

- (a) you are now and will be at all times, acting in compliance with all applicable legislation, regulations and guidance concerning anti-money laundering; and
- (b) the funds that we receive from you do not represent the proceeds of criminal or terrorist activity or an activity of a similar nature.

3.15.2 We may cease to act without explanation in certain circumstances. You agree that we will have no liability to you in respect of any liabilities to the extent that they arise out of, or in connection with, our compliance in good faith with the requirements of the applicable anti-money laundering legislation, as varied or amended from time to time, or any other statutory provisions.

EQUITY, MARGIN AND LEVERAGE

4.1 Equity, Margin and Free Margin

- 4.1.1 Equity means the sum of money in your Account at a point in time, after deposits and withdrawals, realised profits and losses, and floating profit and loss on your open Positions (the Equity).
- 4.1.2 Margin means the portion of your Equity that is utilised to open one or more Positions (the Margin). For the avoidance of doubt, Margin is not deducted from the calculation of your Equity.
- 4.1.3 Margin can neither be used to open another Position nor be withdrawn from your Account.
- 4.1.4 The portion of your Equity that is not Margin is free margin (the Free Margin). Free Margin may be used to open another Position or can be withdrawn from your Account.

4.2 Margin Calls and Auto Stop-Out

- 4.2.1 If the Equity falls below an amount that equals to one hundred percent of your Margin, your Account will enter into a margin call (the Margin Call).
- 4.2.2 If your Equity falls to or below an amount that equals to thirty percent (or such other percentage as prescribed by us from time to time) of your Margin, an auto-stop-out will occur, whereby some or all of your open Positions will automatically be closed out by the automated risk management system, in order to bring your Equity above the required amount (the Auto Stop-Out). We do not discretionarily manage your portfolio. The automated risk management system may automatically first close out the open Positions that carry the greatest loss. The automated risk management system may then close out such number of additional open Positions successively until the Equity in your Account is above the required amount. You should be prepared for the automated risk management system to close out all your open Positions.
- 4.2.3 In the event of a Margin Call, you may, in order to bring your Equity above your Margin:
- (a) close one or more of your open Positions;
 - (b) deposit funds in your Account; or
 - (c) a combination of both.
- 4.2.4 You agree and acknowledge that whilst we may inform you from time to time of a Margin Call, we have no obligation to do so. It is your responsibility to monitor your Account and ensure that you maintain sufficient Equity to meet your Margin requirements at all times.

4.3 Leverage

- 4.3.1 Leverage is a mechanism through which you are able to open a Position for a value that is higher than the amount of Margin. As our Products are leveraged, Margin funds only part of the Position and we finance the remainder.
- 4.3.2 Leverage is expressed as a ratio such as 10:1, 100:1, 200:1 or 400:1. The higher ratio of leverage you use, the less Margin you need to open a Position, in proportion to the notional value of the Position. What this may mean for you is that for a Product that is leveraged at a 200:1 ratio, you may open a Position with a notional value of USD 1,000 using USD 5 as the Margin.

4.3.3 The amount of Margin is calculated with reference to a percentage of the notional value of an open Position. We determine the percentage of the notional value that is required as Margin by an underlying instrument, and we may change the percentage from time to time at our discretion.

4.3.4 We reserve the right to change the leverage of a Product or Account, from time to time, at our discretion. We will endeavour to provide you with reasonable notice of such change, where practicable. It is your responsibility to monitor for changes to the leverage, which may occur due to:

- (a) a change in prevailing Market conditions;
- (b) an actual or potential event of default or termination event;
- (c) a risk assessment; or
- (d) increased market volatility.

SECTION 5

CHARGES AND PAYMENTS

5.1 Charges

Please see the charges and payment section on our Website for an explanation of our costs and charges.

5.2 Payments

Unless otherwise specified, all payments and dues that may be due to us under these Terms will be made immediately, and in such currency as we may from time to time specify. All payments and dues will be made by you without any deduction or withholding and shall be made exclusive of VAT.

We reserve the right to set-off any payments or dues due to us under these Terms against money that is in your Account.

5.3 Calculations

Other than as specified, for the purposes of any calculation hereunder, we may convert amounts denominated in a currency into such other currency as we may from time to time specify, at such rate prevailing at the time of the calculation as we shall select.

SECTION 6

CLIENT MONEY

6.1 Client money requirements

- 6.1.1 You agree that money belonging to you which is held by us in each Account (the “Client Money”), will be held by us in our designated client money account. Client Money is segregated from our assets.
- 6.1.2 You agree that we may place your funds in our designated Client Money account in a different currency to the currency used to open your Account. Such Client Money will be at least equal in value and will be in compliance with JSC Rules.
- 6.1.3 If funds are transferred to your Account from a source that is not registered in your name, or of which you are not a beneficiary, we reserve the right to return the funds transferred to your Account, to an account registered in our name or of which you are the beneficiary, as well as to void the effect of the Positions opened with such funds. In accordance with JSC Rules, we will not return the funds to the source of the transfer.
- 6.1.4 No interest is due in respect of Client Money.
- 6.1.5 Whilst we remain responsible for handling Client Money, certain operational functions relating to payment processing may be outsourced.

SECTION 7

REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

7.1 Representations, warranties and covenants

7.1.1 You represent, warrant and covenant to us on the date these Terms come into force and on the date of each Order and date on which a Position is opened or closed out, that:

 - (i) a law, regulation, order, judgment of a court or other agency of government applicable to you or your assets;
 - (ii) a contractual restriction binding on or affecting you or your assets; or
 - (iii) a charge or agreement by which you are bound;
- (f) in asking us to open or close out a Position, you have been solely responsible for making your own independent appraisal and investigations into the risks of such action and Position, or that you have sought independent professional advice, and you have sufficient knowledge and experience to do so. You are also capable of assuming, and assume, the risks of that Position;
- (g) you act as principal and sole beneficial owner in entering into these Terms and each Position (where applicable to the type of Position being contemplated) and we are not acting as a fiduciary for, or an adviser, to you in respect of that Position;
- (h) you will provide us with accurate and non-misleading information on your financial position, domicile or any other information we may request from you. You will promptly notify us of a change to such information;
- (i) you are willing and financially able to sustain a total loss of funds, and trading of such Product is a suitable investment vehicle for you;
- (j) you are the sole beneficial owner of the Equity you transfer under these Terms;
- (k) you are in compliance with the Applicable Regulations to which you are subject, including without limitation, all tax laws and regulations, exchange control requirements and registration requirements, and you will use all reasonable steps to comply with all Applicable Regulations in relation to these Terms and each Position, where such Applicable Regulations do not apply to you but your cooperation is needed to help us comply with our obligations;

- (l) you will, if so required, make appropriate disclosures to the relevant authority. You understand that we are entitled, and in some cases required to report a relevant Position to a relevant regulatory authority subject to the JSC Rules;
- (m) if you are a company, you are duly incorporated and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of your incorporation;
- (n) if you are a company, you have the power to own assets and carry on business, as it is being conducted;
- (o) you will at all times obtain and comply with, and do all that is necessary to maintain in full force and effect, the authority, power, consent, licence and authorisation of a governmental or other authority referred to in this section 7 (Representations, warranties and covenants) and will use reasonable efforts to obtain any that may become necessary in the future;
- (p) you will promptly notify us of the occurrence or likely occurrence of an event of default in respect to yourself in connection with these Terms; and
- (q) you will provide us with such information or documents as we may reasonably require to evidence the matters referred to in this section 7 (Representations, warranties and covenants) or to comply with Applicable Regulations.

SECTION 8

EVENT OF DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

8.1 Termination

8.1.1 Unless required by Applicable Regulations, either party may terminate these Terms (and the relationship between us), without cause and without the need for a judicial order, by giving ten Business Days' prior written notice.

8.1.2 The following circumstances constitute an event of default, under which we may terminate these Terms without need for a court order with five Business Days' prior notice, if the breach has not been remedied:

- (a) Breach of Terms. You fail to comply with or perform your obligations (in whole or in part), including the obligation to make payment of Margin or dues, under these Terms.

- (f) Manifest error. We determine in our discretion there is an error in, or lack of clarity within:
